

UK Association for the History of Nursing Annual Research Colloquium

Friday 28th June 2024,

Royal Naval College, Room QA010, Queen Ann Building, University of Greenwich

Event Programme

Time	Topic	Presenter
9:00 AM	Reception
9:30 AM	Welcome & Housekeeping	Professor Brian Boag Justin Stephens (2024 convenor)
	Panel 1: Nursing in 20th Century Wartime	Chair: Prof. Erin Spinney
9:45 AM	Paper One: Broken Nurses: the impact of foreign service on the health of New Zealand army nurses in the First World War	Dr Wendy Maddocks
10:15 AM	Paper two: Frontline nursing during the Spanish Civil War (1936-39): implications for British planning for the outbreak of the Second World War	Prof. Linda Palfreeman
10:45 AM	Paper three: 'The grey zone' for Jewish prisoner nurses: survival, caring, and moral ambiguity in Nazi concentration camps	Dr Jane Brooks

Institute for Lifecourse Development

Time	Topic	Presenter
11:15 AM	Coffee break
	Panel two: Professional development for nurses in the late 20th Century	Chair: Prof. Alannah Tomkins
11.30 AM	Paper four: Norwegian theatre nursing – from a training on the job to a Masters degree	Asc. Prof. Jan-Thore Lockertsen
12.00 PM	Paper five: Nurse practitioners: the lens to British society	Kelly Swaby (PhD History Researcher)
12:30 PM	Poster presentations (discussion during and after lunch: 1. Thomas Lipton’s transnational benevolence towards nurses during the First World War 2. Becoming family: parallels between nurses’ provision of emotional support to patients during COVID and the Second World War 3. Co-curating an exhibition about the history of children and young-people’s nursing 4. Nurses in Red: RCN History of Nursing Forum’s Wikipedia project	Dr. Gavin Wilk  Dr. Katherine Roberts  Dr. Antonia Harland-Lang (RCN Museum and events co-ordinator)  Teresa Doherty and Dr. Sarah Rogers
13:00 PM	Lunch and poster viewing

Time	Topic	Presenter
	Panel three: Individual nursing histories	Chair: Prof. Vari Drennan
14.00 PM	Paper six: Aboriginal relationality as methodology in framing the historiography of Aboriginal Australian nurses 1890-1950: Muriel Stanley	Prof. Odette Best and Prof. Tracey Bunda
14.30 PM	Paper seven: A Very Considerable Goose <sup>1</sup> : Mary Stanley and the Crimean War	Prof. Claire Chatterton
15.00 PM	Paper eight: Thomas Costello an overlooked mid-20th-century psychiatric nurse and occupational therapist	Prof. Judi Pettigrew, Ciara Egan, Naoise McMahon, Gwawr Faulconbridge, Irene Ilott
15:30 PM	Break
	Panel four: Nursing in historic institutions	Chair: Justin Stephens
15.45 PM	Paper nine: Medical practitioner authority, nursing practice, and Haslar Naval Hospital, 1755-1775	Prof. Erin Spinney
16.15 PM	Paper ten: Evaluating the impact of the Northern Workhouse Nursing Association	Dr. Stuart Wildman
16.45 PM	Closing remarks

